REV. W. E. EDMONDS GIVEN RECEPTION ON ANNIVERSARY

Congregation Does Honor to Pastor for His Ten Years of Service in Glendale

A reception was tendered Rev. W. E. Edmonds last night in the Sunday school room in honor of his ten years of service for God in the Presbyterian pulpit.

A sum of money for his library fund was presented to Rev. Edmonds by W. J. Clendenin in behalf of the congregation. Mrs. J. A. Newton presented Mrs. Edmonds a large bouquet of red roses with the love of her associates and H. L. Finlay presented a table lamp to the Edmonds family.

"It seems to me that the greatest work of our lives is before us," declared Rev. Edmonds in his speech of appreciation. "Whatever of accomplishment has been made possible here it is only because I have had the support of the congregation. The work of this church has been backed up by the finest people God ever made.

"I think that I am the happiest man on earth. I wouldn't change places with any king or president. I never felt so well as I do now. I feel younger and stronger than I did ten years ago when I came to this church.

Likes His Work Here

"I am very glad that in the providence of God my work was cast here. We face the future with great hope and great expectations."

Rev. Edmonds stated that he had no desire to leave his present pastorate and that there were no green fields which looked greener than the pastures at home. He paid tribute to Dr. Ward, his predecessor, and to the Rev. Louis Tinning, his assistant, and admitted that it was his desire to remain in the Presbyterian pulpit until called to his reward.

"I am not as old as Methuseleh," remarked Mr. Clendenin, with a laugh, in a brief speech, but I have heard a good many Presbyterian ministers both here and in the Baltimore Presbytery in my day. I don't believe there were a score, who could come up to Rev. Edmonds in preaching the words of God. Some-

County War Mother Speaker at Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Glendale War Mothers' organization was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Dick of 309 North Louise street, with about twenty members and their friends in attendance. Mrs. Edward Hopkins, County War Mother of Los Angeles county, was the principal speaker of the day, telling the local women of the details of the "War Cabins," a thirty-acre fruit ranch several miles north of Pasadena, which has recently been turned entirely over to the ex-service men of this part of the state. Following Mrs. Hopkins' speech the women voted to take an active part in the furnishing of one of the cabins in the near future.

After a brief discussion it was decided that an election of permanent officers for the organization will take place at the next regular meeting, which will be on Wednesday afternoon, January 18. A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. J. M. Cowlin, Mrs. John McDonald and Mrs. Paul Wells, was appointed to submit a list of nominees at that time.

From now on the Glendale society of War Mothers will be known as the Lester Meyer Chapter, which name was given it in honor of the first Glendale boy to die in France.

During the afternoon the women were entertained with two beautifully-rendered vocal solos by Mrs. Dick's daughter, Mrs. Ralph Penland, who has returned to this city from San Francisco.

Mrs. Daniel Campbell Aids in Installation

Mrs. Daniel Campbell of North Highland avenue acted as chaplain at the installation ceremony of the officers of Burbank chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. The installing officer was Mrs. Holman, past matron of Pacific chapter, Los Angeles. Mrs. Maude Sibley of Los Angeles, who is grand conductress of the grand chapter of the state of California, acted as marshal. The meeting was well attended, with a number of visitors from Glendale and other nearby chapters.

Burbank chapter has just recently purchased a new altar and five new pedestals. At the meeting last night Mrs. H. W. Lewis presented these and three of the altar cushions to the club members. Mrs. Holman, who was the first district deputy grand matron to visit Burbank chapter after its organization, presented the members with the Bible. Mrs. Daniel Campbell also presented an altar cushion.

WILL PLAT WOOD TRACT

S. A. Chase reports that he will have surveyors at work platting the Wood subdivision on East Wilson avenue in the very near future.

C. of C. Dedication New Headquarters Not to Take Place Tonight

ONE chance in a million—But officials of the Chamber of Commerce and Citizens' Building Corporation won't take it.

Therefore, the formal opening of the Chamber of Commerce headquarters scheduled for tonight will not take place.

It seems that the excavation for the Pendroy Dry Goods company store building just south of the Chamber of Commerce makes it inadvisable to have an assembly in the latter until a retaining wall is built.

Engineers and architects declare there is practically no danger, but none will assume responsibility for overloading the foundation of sandy soil.

Of course, everybody is disappointed, but all interested are agreed it is better to wait a month if necessary to have the gala affair planned for tonight.

Miss Clara Ringert Is Hostess to Club

The members of the Wednesday club were entertained yesterday at the home of Miss Clara Ringert, 552 West Elk avenue, with Mrs. Charles Glover as assisting hostess. The guests of honor were Mrs. M. Reed of Long Beach, Mrs. Alice Thorwart and Mrs. George Parker of Chicago. After a very delicious cafeteria luncheon a social afternoon was enjoyed.

It is the custom of the club to take up a collection at each meeting for charity work. At yesterday's meeting it was decided to divide the money in the treasury and give it to the daughters of Mrs. Frank Hester and Mrs. J. H. Hearnshaw. Both of these girls attend high school and have been each assigned a poor family to look after.

Club members present included Mrs. William F. Nash, Mrs. J. Perkins, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy, Mrs. J. H. Hearnshaw, Mrs. C. H. Sanders, Mrs. G. D. Roach, Mrs. A. F. Muhleman, Mrs. William Gibson, Mrs. H. A. Reed of Long Beach, Mrs. Charles Freshman of Los Angeles, Miss Clara Ringert and Mrs. Charles Glover.

Arthur Kearne Real Booster for Glendale

Arthur Kearne of 1010 East Wilson avenue, who came west with his family from Fort Alleghany, Pa., and located in Glendale one year ago last August, has become a very enthusiastic booster for this city. He has not only written enthusiastic letters to his friends but has mailed picture cards and sent them many copies of The Glendale Evening News, and is now beginning to get results.

L. Pulvene, one of his best friends in Fort Alleghany, has taken a great interest in the paper, and has written Mr. Kearne that he is coming to Glendale where "you have a live newspaper and must have a live town." He expects to arrive by January 15, and will be prepared to enter business and make this his home.

Byron Kearne, son of Arthur Kearne, has also been made happy by receipt of news from one of his boyhood chums, that he is leaving Alleghany very shortly and will establish a grocery here. Mr. Kearne attributes his success in bringing his friends to be near him, to the influence of The Evening News, and intends to keep up his practice of sending it east.

Mrs. Susie Peck Is President of D. of V.

The annual election of officers of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, held Tuesday night in American Legion hall on East Broadway, was attended by an unusually large number of members, and the following officers elected: Mrs. Susie Peck, president; Mrs. Pearl Moore, senior vice president; Miss Irene Fuller, junior vice president; Miss Audrey Hall, treasurer; Mrs. Agnes Richardson, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Dora Hall, chaplain; Mrs. Cora Jones, Mrs. Daphne Lyons and Miss Amie Miller, council members. The utmost harmony prevailed and all officers were elected by unanimous vote to serve for the year ending December 1922.

Contributions Continue to Come in for Float

The ingathering for the Glendale float fund is beginning to reach a stride that should carry the Tournament of Roses representation "over the top." A. W. Crumb and Jeanette West have given $1 each; the Knights of Pythias have added $8 to their $8.48 contribution last week; the Harrower Laboratory gives $10 and Thomas D. Watson sent his personal check for $30. At the meeting of the float committee Tuesday night James M. Rhoades was elected treasurer and checks should be made payable to him.

GLENDALE SECURES IMPROVED POSTAL SERVICE TODAY

Southern Pacific Company Is Doing All Possible for Betterments Here

Beginning today the Glendale postoffice will dispatch mail north on the Southern Pacific route from the station in southern Glendale at 8:21 and 9:22 a. m. and 6:21 p. m. Mail from the north will be received at 8:29 and 9:07 a. m., according to D. Ripley Jackson, newly-appointed postmaster who will take charge of postal affairs here December 31.

This information coming from an official source definitely spikes a canard sprung on the Southern Pacific railroad that it was not giving service to Glendale worthy of a town with a water tank. The Southern Pacific company weeks ago informed Secretary James M. Rhoades that it would have practically all except two limited trains each direction stop at the station in southern Glendale to pick up or land passengers.

Listens to Reason

The Southern Pacific company also has not refused to listen to this city's request for a more centrally-located station and at the present time H. L. Legrand, the agent here, is developing business sufficient to warrant such a move. Improvements will come as fast as possible.

The Southern Pacific and F. S. McGinnis in particular should be complimented on what they have done and may it give them courage to do more for "the fastest-growing city of its class in America."

Mrs. H. V. Henry Is Given Vote of Thanks

The last meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle until after the Christmas holidays was held yesterday at the library building, Mrs. A. A. Barton presiding. The review was given by Mrs. Donald A. Magill on an article "The One-Cylinder Man" (Cressey).

A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. H. V. Henry, one of the committee who compiled the book "Immortelles" and gave a great deal of time and thought to it. Mrs. Barton's suggestion that the vote of thanks be extended to Mr. Henry, who voluntarily offered his services and help in making the book a success, was accepted. Mrs. E. Johnston is in charge of the disposal of these books.

The reading of the book "All the Children of All the People" was completed at yesterday's meeting. The chapters dealing with literature, methods and religion in the schools completing this interesting volume.

Mr. and Mrs. Dart Hurt in Auto Crash

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dart who made their home in Dayton Court, Glendale, until quite recently, will be very sorry to hear that they have been the victims of an accident. Mr. and Mrs. Dart left here about the first of December for Fresno. A few days after their arrival in that city, they were on their way to church, accompanied by their daughter and little grandson, with Mr. Dart driving, when their automobile was struck by a larger machine, and the entire family was thrown out upon the pavement.

Mrs. Dart was unconscious for several hours and is badly bruised. The daughter and grandson suffered minor injuries, and Mr. Dart had one hip broken and is still in the hospital at Fresno. The news was received here Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Dunham.

Don't Get Alarmed at This Man in 'Nightie'

No, it isn't the Klu Klux Klan you see going around in flowing white robes these days.

Only Paul Wells, deputy health officer, visiting quarantined homes and taking throat cultures from diphtheria patients. He also wears a mask and little skull cap.

There are a score of diphtheria cases here now, he says, and all doctors are reporting all cases of sore throat and tonsilitis in order to stop the spread of the epidemic.

Tools Are Stolen From Hjorth Building Job

The theft of specified tools has been reported to the police from a job at Concord and Doran streets of the Hjorth Construction Company by J. A. Givens and J. W. Smith, 108 Monterey road.

ROOM MOTHERS IN SESSION

A meeting of the room mothers of the Pacific Avenue school, who with their committees will have charge of the bazaar to be given at the school tomorrow, met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ralph H. Brown, chairman of ways and means, 612 South Pacific avenue. Those present included Mrs. W. Sandlin, Mrs. H. Price, Mrs. Fenstermacher, Mrs. L. Kittredge, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. H. Bogen, Mrs. Chrisman, and Mrs. Shuey.

BASKETBALL GAMES ARE ARRANGED IN CENTRAL LEAGUE

Season Opens January 13 and Will Close February 24; Track Meet April 7

The interscholastic basketball season will begin Friday, January 13, and end Friday, February 24.

This schedule was decided upon yesterday afternoon at a meeting in South Pasadena of principals and coaches of the Central League, attended by Principal George U. Moyse and Coach Normal C. Hayhurst, Arthur K. Wilson, coach at Monrovia, was selected as basketball manager for the league, which consists of Glendale, South Pasadena, Alhambra, Monrovia, Franklin, Covina, and Citrus Union at Azusa. Most of the schools will play Harvard Military academy, also.

Three teams are to be entered in the tournament by each school: a 125-pound team, a 110-pound team, and the regular or unlimited team.

Players Are Retained

The two light weight teams are to play doubleheaders on another day of the week from the main team and in the reverse order from the regular schedule.

Cecil Wilson and Russell Eiffler will be able to continue playing with the Glendale football squad next season as the result of a decision reached to base eligibility solely upon length of actual attendance during the flu epidemic.

Norman Begg will be enabled to participate in the approaching track season and to enter the tennis tournament as a result of this ruling.

Track Meet April 7

The big annual spring track meet and field day will be held on April 7 on the Oxidental athletic field according to present arrangements. It was decided yesterday that the track season should begin immediately at the close of the basketball schedule.

Baseball was not discussed in great detail, but it was decided that only one game between each school in the league should be played this year instead of two in order to reduce the length of the baseball season.

Committee Chairmen of P.-T. A. Gather

A most delightful social afternoon and business meeting of the officers and committee chairmen of the various parent-teacher associations was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Robert White, 347 North Orange street, president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, with about seventy guests present. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. A. C. Brown and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson.

During the business meeting it was voted that the federation contribute $25 toward the Glendale float fund for the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. During the afternoon Red Seal stamps were sold and subscriptions for the Salvation Army were taken, being quite in keeping with the Christmas spirit of good will.

A little skit telling about the work of the parent-teacher association was very well given by Mrs. E. B. Moore and Mrs. A. H. Brown. A total membership of 2,488 for all the associations was reported. At the close of the afternoon refreshments of cake and coffee were served. Decorations of holly, red flowers and greenery and a Christmas tree further carried out the suggestion of the holiday season.

Y. L. I. Society to Hold Christmas Party

The members of the Y. L. I. society, of which Mrs. Frank Salmacia is president, met last night at the home of Miss Gertrude Koberman on East Maple avenue, and at that time the report on the sale of tickets for the "hope chest," recently disposed of, was given, showing about $800 being cleared. Rev. Father James S. O'Neill and Harry Girard were present at the meeting. Mr. Girard spoke of the series of organ recitals to be given for the benefit of the church organ fund and the members of the society were appointed as a committee to look after the programs.

The members of the society are planning to hold a Christmas party December 29 at the home of Miss Ada Gies, 823 North Brand boulevard. This will be in the nature of a "children's party," all members to wear juvenile costume, and there

This would involve risk."

STATE TROOPS ARE PATROLLING KANSAS COAL FIELDS

PITTSBURG, Kans., Dec. 15.—State troopers, scattered in detachments through the "red" districts of the Kansas coal fields, began systematic patrol duty at noon today. A quiet, comparable with one of those lulls in Flanders fields which preceded another terrific onslaught, pervaded the entire district. Striking miners and the victorious "shock troops" of the "Amazon army" which, in a three-day offensive have practically closed down every mine in the field, turned out en masse to see the soldiers. No violence was offered. Naught but sullen stares greeted the soldiers as they took the posts assigned them.

DAIL EIREANN CONTINUES ITS DISCUSSION OF TREATY

DUBLIN, Dec. 15.—Tension between the Sinn Fein factions over the Irish peace treaty was at fever heat when Dail Eireann met again in secret session today to continue the deliberations broken off late last night. Efforts to effect a compromise over the rival forces headed by Eamonn DeValera and Michael Collins apparently made little headway. DeValera won another "moral victory" when he succeeded in having today's session held in secret. Collins and Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein, attempted to have an open session today but were defeated. It is likely that an open session will be held tomorrow and that a vote upon the ratification of the peace settlement will take place before Saturday.

LITTLE BOY IS BADLY BURNED AS RESULT GAS EXPLOSION

Blast Comes Out of Oven in Front of Which G. Alston, Age 3, Is Playing

George Alston, Jr., 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Alston of 1536 Lorraine street, today is recovering from burns received about the face Tuesday night when the oven door of the kitchen range blew open while he was playing on the floor in front of it.

The accident occurred early in the evening while Mrs. Alston was roasting meat for supper. George was playing upon the kitchen floor. He was just close enough to the stove to avoid being burned by actual contact with it. Suddenly the oven door blew open and a pan was hurled out of the stove.

May Not Be Scarred

Badly burned, George immediately was taken in the Alston auto to Dr. J. E. Eckles who administered treatment at once. On account of the promptness with which he reached a doctor, it is not believed that the boy's burns will leave scars. His eyebrows were singed off, his lips scorched, his nose disfigured and some of his hair crisped.

The cause of the accident is unknown. Mrs. Alston thinks it possible that some of the gas burners had gone out filling the oven with combustible gas. She stated this morning that she did not intend to use the oven further for fear the accident might be repeated. It was considerable of a shock to Mr. and Mrs. Alston.

The hostesses were Mrs. May Dickman, Mrs. Emma Burket, Mrs. Charlotte Goss and Miss Ruth Byram.

The program was in charge of the chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Josephine Bryant. Excellent papers were read by Mrs. May Emery and Mrs. Pearl Tower, the subjects being "Social Service" and "Origin of the Phonograph." Mrs. Albert Pearce was initiated into the chapter. Donations of home-made jelly for the boys at Thornycroft, and of fruit and soap for the True Love Home in Los Angeles were made by the members of the chapter. Guests present were Mrs. Roy Kent, Mrs. W. B. Weiser, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Miss Bess Moore and Mrs. Law of Kansas.

Mrs. Geo. Robinson Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club were most delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. George Robinson, 640 North Jackson street. A delicious three-course luncheon was served at noon. The table was centered with a small, decorated Christmas tree. The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations throughout the entire house. After luncheon the afternoon was spent in playing bridge, high score being made by Mrs. C. C. Carroll, who was awarded a pair of mahogany candlesticks.

Those present included Mrs. C. C. Carroll, Mrs. E. E. East, Mrs. Frank George, Mrs. Claude G. Putnam, Mrs. W. W. Walker, Miss Elma Miess, Mrs. Robert Pease of Los Angeles, and the hostess, Mrs. George Robinson.

Mrs. Margaret Biggs at County Federation

Congregation Does Honor to Pastor for His Ten Years of Service in Glendale

times he knocks me, but I don't think he does it intentionally; maybe he hits you once in awhile, but maybe you deserve it.

Says Pastor Not 'Quitter

"Our pastor has been a man sent from God to us and he is under the influence of the holy spirit. He is a man whose whole life is consecrated to the service of his master. If anyone were to offer him a position paying $10,000 a year, I don't think he would accept it. He wouldn't be happy elsewhere. I daresay that he could have gotten twice the salary that we pay him. But he loves his congregation here and he loves his work. As long as God permits him to preach the words of eternal life, he is going to preach them here."

Mr. Clendenin commented upon the fact that only six or eight of the 200 ministers, who were in the Los Angeles Presbytery when Rev. Edmonds came ten years ago, are still occupying pulpits in this district. He said that it seemed a remarkable thing that our ministers should be changing so rapidly, but laughingly stated his Rev. Edmonds had not been a "quitter."

"The average length of pastorate in United States is not over five years," asserted Mr. Clendenin. "The church from which I came from in the old country was established in 1646. The present pastor is the eighth to occupy the pulpit in the 275 years—an average of thirty-five years apiece. It is no uncommon thing in the north of Ireland for a pastor to be connected with his church for fifty years."

Meet As Large Family

H. L. Finlay, chairman of the occasion, said that it must be a satisfaction to Rev. Edmonds to realize that those who had known him the longest paid him the most honor. He declared that the gift of a lamp seemed most appropriate because it brought light into the dark recesses just as Rev. Edmonds' life has done.

"We are met here as a large family to do honor to those who are at the head of that family," announced Mr. Finlay.

In behalf of the ministerial association, Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of the Central Christian church, congratulated Rev. Edmonds upon the quality and length of his service.

Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts sang several selections and two readings were given by Miss Anita Fletcher.

Young Men's Bible Class Selects New Officials for Year

The members of the Young Men's Bible class of the First Methodist church met at the church Tuesday night and the following officers were elected: Bert Matthiesen, president; Frank Matthiesen, first vice-president; Will Goss, second vice-president; Earl Bactel, third vice-president; Ernest Wolber, treasurer; Stanley Wheeler, secretary. After the business meeting refreshments of buns, weiners and coffee were served. There were about twenty-four class members present.

GIVE REASONS FOR FAVORING LUKENS SITE FOR SCHOOL

Committee Submits Number of Reasons for Support of Property at Election

Editor The Evening News:—What are the relations of the two proposed high school sites to the geographical and population centers of Glendale? This question is stirring the minds of many citizens this month and to such the following facts should be of interest.

The mileage data were obtained December 9 from the city engineer at the city hall. The figures embrace two important recent additions to the city of Glendale, viz. the annexation of 1186 acres last August 11 which carried Glendale's easterly line to the limits of Pasadena; also the Laurel Ave. District annexation Nov. 29 of 401 acres which now causes Glendale's west line to join Burbank.

Air-line distance from easternmost point of Glendale (Pasadena line) to northwest corner of Doran and Kenilworth (Grey Site) 24,840 ft. or 4.70 miles.

Air-line distance from westernmost present boundary of Glendale to southeast corner of Verdugo road and Broadway (Lukens Site) 22,066 ft. or 4.18 miles. Advantage in favor of the Lukens site 2784 ft.

Air-line distance from Tropico fire-house (old city hall) to Doran and Kenilworth northwest corner 9,870 ft. or 1.87 miles. Air-line distance from Tropico fire-house to northeast corner of Verdugo road and Colorado 8,220 ft. or 1.56 miles. Advantage in favor of the Lukens site .31 miles or 1650 ft. less 195 ft. (which must be substracted at the corner oil station), making a net difference between the distances to the two sites of 1455 ft.

Deals Only With City

Air-line from north city limits of Glendale to the two sites is about the same, but anyone can observe that the practical advantage is with the Lukens site because the traffic of that section must come down Verdugo road before it can turn west.

Notice especially that the above data deal only with Glendale city proper and do not involve the other parts of the Union High School district. Their interests all the more heavily throw the advantage to the Lukens site. The above statistics should absolutely settle any argument as to whether or not the Lukens (Broadway) site is nearer than the Grey site to the geographical center of Glendale.

An interesting illustration of the locations of these two sites may be made if the inquirer lays the end of a two-mile line on the Grey site and allows it to swing as the radius of a circle. Since the air-line distance of the Grey site from the nearest point of San Fernando road is only about 1600 ft. such a circle would run into Griffith Park near the Glendale-Burbank boundary and after enclosing several square miles swing back into Glendale near the Tropico end of Brand boulevard. These four square miles approximately in Griffith Park would be not at all in our Union High School district as is Eagle Rock, nor would such extensive park area ever contain a large tributary population as Eagle Rock does. Such a two-mile radius describing a circle about the Lukens site would take in comparatively little territory outside the Union district.

Center of Population

As to the center of population if we use the recent November enrollment at the Glendale Union High School as a basis we find that in Glendale alone the figures prove almost an even break.

West of Brand were 458 students. East of Brand were 423 students. This gives the west an advantage of thirty-five. However the 215 students from Eagle Rock, Tujunga, Sunland, and Crescenta which all arrive from east of Brand give an advantage of 180 students to the east side.

If it is desired to figure north and south there were only 397 students north of Broadway to 484 south of Broadway. With the 123 from Eagle Rock added to those south of Broadway and those from the other districts (92) added to the number north we have 607 south as against 489 north. As the Lukens site is south of Broadway the north and south statistics would favor it.

The Lukens site then is fairly balanced against the Grey site as to center of population if Glendale alone is considered and decidedly favored if the whole district is brought into the problem.

Our conclusion must be that the Lukens site is more central both in respect to geography and to population.

This communication is meant to cover only data bearing on the important point of central location and will not therefore expand upon a number of other superior attractions of the Broadway site such as the following:

First—It is more beautifully situated.

Second—It is better located for street-car and bus lines.

Third—It has three fine thoroughfares, Broadway, Colorado, and Verdugo road.

Fourth—It is safer from storm water.

Fifth—It is less exposed to windstorms.

Sixth—It will not be subjected to the noise of railroad trains and industrial district conditions.

Seventh—It has richer soil.

Eighth—It has a water supply of twenty-five miner's inches.

Ninth—It has over $12,000 of fine street work already done.

Tenth—It contains approximately three acres more land net than the other site, since streets and about three-fourths of an acre home-site containing Mr. Grey's house (which is located on the southwest corner of the proposed school plot) must be deducted from the "approximate" twenty acres.

Eleventh—It is a better bargain because the written options of $77,500 and $75,000 respectively on the two sites have only a difference of $2,500 to show for much street work and greater acreage.

Twelfth—It was the unanimous choice of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce committee of nine.

In all fairness to the cause of education, and civic and community betterment we feel that every voter on December 29 should do two things: Vote "Yes" on the bonds, and in the straw ballot vote for the Lukens (Broadway) site.

Respectfully submitted,
W. D. ROOT,
MRS. M. L. TIGHT,
C. M. POMEROY,
Committee of the Glendale Welfare Association.

ABOUT THE MOSQUITO

According to an old negro mammy, who has passed all her days in New Orleans, the mosquito is a scheming, treacherous bug. "Here he comes," she says, "close to you, singin', lovin' and gentle-like, 'Cousin, cousin.' But jest as soon as he's got a good meal he ain't got no more use for you than pizen. Then he flirts his ugly, skinny old head and sails away, singing 'No kin, no kin, no kin'."

The WORLD OVER
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Yale university will start out with one of the most formidable swimming teams in the intercollegiate ranks owing to the great number of men still with the team who participated in Yale's wonderful campaign of last year. The veterans on the team consist of such stars as Jelliffe, Solley and Pratt, who were on the world's record-breaking relay team; Banks, Higgins and Gauss, sprinters; Marshall and Cooke, sprinters; Wood Guernsey and Cooper, plungers, and three noted fancy divers; Pollard, the intercollegiate champion, Crane and Prime. The schedule of competition, as now made up, calls for thirteen engagements with other universities. If the team turns out to be of championship caliber, there is little question that it will take on some intersectional competition.

The post-season football game situation in California has degenerated into such a farce this season that it behooves the collegiate officials to step in and see to it that the situation is not repeated next year. It savors entirely too much of professional methods.

The formation of the Del Monte Tennis club is merely additional evidence of the great impetus the court game has enjoyed practically all over the world in the last few years. This new organization already has the sanction of the California Lawn Tennis association as an affiliated member. What the Del Monte club will do in the matter of fostering the game will depend entirely on the activity of its membership—which remains to be seen. At least, it is starting out in the right spirit with plans for a series of inter-club events with San Jose, Santa Cruz, Gilroy, Watsonville, Salinas and other California organizations.

The sale of Jim O'Connell, first baseman of the San Francisco club to the New York Giants, was not good news to the Pacific coast fans. However much they may rejoice at Jim's good fortune, to them it merely means another case of the big leagues grabbing the talent the coasters think they are entitled to in their own league.

The promoters and the fellows who had to pay the rain insurance were among those most pleased when the California Midwinter league games came to an end. Both lost out. As far as the fans are concerned, they didn't give it much thought after they had been a time or two for a look at the big league stars.

Stanford university recently dedicated seven new asphalt tennis courts which were constructed to keep up with the increasing interest and number of players who are taking up the game. There are a number of exceedingly promising players who are expected to be heard from in intercollegiate circles in the near future. Phil Neer, intercollegiate champion again will be sporting the Cardinal color on the courts next season.

SPORTS CHATTER

PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

If the colleges, members of the Pacific Coast Conference, want an annual East versus West football game, it would appear that all future games must be taken over by the conference itself, or the promotion and management of such a game placed directly in the hands of the college which wins the coast conference title. The wrangling, commercialism and misunderstanding which have attended the game this year are detrimental to the best interests of college sport.

While certain colleges in the east will refuse to let their teams come to the Pacific coast under any conditions, there are others—and large colleges at that— which would be willing to enter into an East versus West game if the affair was conducted by a college or by the Pacific Coast conference and the proper college atmosphere prevailing. These same colleges refuses to be party to a game conducted by organizations other than colleges.

Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, and Los Angeles, and San Diego as well would like to be hosts to teams representing this Pacific coast and an eastern team. It would seem that the Pacific coast conference might be able to arrange such a game and have it played alternately in the cities named. The Conference by deciding on such an arrangement would in turn give every section of the coast a chance to see the best available eastern team compete against the best Pacific coast team, and such an arrangement would naturally be very beneficial to football all along this coast.

All financial matters attendant to such a contest should be handled either by the Conference or by the college holding the Coast Conference championship. If the Conference itself needs money to carry on its affairs a certain proportion of the gate receipts each year should revert to the Conference. The expenses of transporting the teams to the seat of the game, and legitimate expenses of holding the game should then be taken out and the balance divided.

There are a number of ways an agreement could be arrived at for the division of this money. The visiting team could be given a certain proportion for its college athletic fund and the champion coast team a like amount as the eastern team. The remainder could be equally divided among the other members of the coast conference, or divided on a sliding scale according to the position in which the teams finished in the conference championship series.

The project, however, is not so much what to do with the money as it is of placing the game in the hands of the colleges themselves. Such an arrangement would end for all time such unsavory conditions as have been shown in the last few weeks relative to the East vs. West game for January first.

Size of Bail Bond Didn't Worry 'Scion' of Wealthy Family

ATLANTA. Ga., Dec. 12.—What matters a little bond, fixed at high or low figures to a Whitney, a scion of the old family?

A youth, who said he was Jack Whitney, nephew of Harry Payne Whitney, one of America's wealthiest men, faced the police judge on a charge of cheating and swindling and other offenses after his arrest here.

Whitney went to a downtown department store to look at some fur coats. He stated he desired to make a purchase for his grandmother, who was about to leave for California.

According to the store's credit manager, Whitney represented himself as a nephew of the famous New York horseman. He also stated he owned a pecan grove near Columbus, Ga., and a string of race horses at Louisville.

The coat, he said, must be sent out on approval, which was quite all right, so he picked out a garment worth $350. He selected one for himself that cost $450. Both were to be sent on approval to No. 99 West Peachtree street, which was done. But the merchant began investigations which failed to bear out the statements of Mr. Whitney. There was no grandmother, pecan grove or horses, and the coat proved to be for Alice Walters, who lives at the Peachtree address.

Whitney told the judge to make the bond as high as he liked. The recorder fixed it at $3,000.

"Your uncle won't mind that, anyhow," said the judge.

Juvenile Delinquency Increases in Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan.—Juvenile delinquency throughout Kansas has increased 41 per cent during the last year, according to juvenile court records kept here.

Friction between the parents in the home has been cited as the chief cause by Rev. W. E. Blackstock, who has been making a study of the alarming increase of crimes among children.

The records show that between July 1, 1919, and July 1, 1920, there were 355 boys before the court. During the year following.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Advertisement.

ARMS PARLEY WILL CLOSE, IS BELIEF, BY NEW YEAR'S

Very Little More Will Be Done for China; Speed Will Be Displayed

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—"Out of Washington by New Year's," was the aim of the delegates to the Armament conference as the epoch-making parley swung into its fifth week with its major purposes accomplished.

On the surface of things today, it appeared entirely probable that the ambition of the delegates would be realized, and that the holidays would see the departure of the big conference personages at least.

The problem of China, Siberia and the final adjustment of the naval program laid down by Scretary of State Hughes on the opening day, remain to be cleared up.

With regard to the naval program, Tokio's answer was in the hands of Baron Kato, head of the Japanese delegation, and may be presented to the other powers at once. Tokio's answer is believed to be acceptance of the 5-5-3 capital ship ratio, insisted upon by the United States, coupled with a reservation preserving the status quo of fortifications in the Pacific, and a trade of some sort which will permit Japan to retain the Mutsu, her latest and most powerful dreadnaught.

About Through With China.

With regard to China, the powers believe that most of what can be accomplished here has already been done by the adoption of the four Root principles which pledge them not to nibble any more at Chinese sovereignty and to respect the open door policy of John Hay.

The Siberian question, it is believed, can be disposed of in much the same way—through the adoption by the principal powers concerned of a set of governing principles, the purport of which will be that they shall not take advantage of existing conditions to quietly appropriate Russian territory.

The question of naval auxiliary ships is one that the powers believe will be speedily adjusted after the capital ship ratio has been finally passed upon.

As matters now stand, it appears probable that everyone is in a fair way to be satisfied with the work of the conference with the exception of China. It is significant that officials have taken pains to point out in recent days that "the Chinese expect too much."

Chinese Are Disappointed

Through the adoption of the Root proposals, the eight powers having interests in China have pledged themselves to respect Chinese sovereignty, observe the open door, guarantee Chinese neutrality in future wars, approved the removal from Chinese territory of some foreign infringements upon China's administrative autonomy and in effect "promised to do better all around."

The whole secret of unemployment is that the employer cannot sell the thing produced for enough to pay the wages demanded by the man who produces it.

A Hot Springs young man who proposed to his girl a few nights ago started to tell her that he was "unworthy of her," but she told him first.

Hays Rules Rural Post Boxes From Obstructing Roads

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 12.—Indorsement has been given by Postmaster General Hays to the ruling by Attorney General Price of Ohio that power is vested in the Ohio highway department to remove rural highway mail boxes when placed too near a highway.

"The postoffice department is interested in the improvement of post roads and will not support any unreasonable attempt by a patron of a rural route to maintain his box in a position which authorities of your state believe constitutes an obstruction," Postmaster General Hays said to Attorney General Price, who had submitted his ruling to the postmaster general before making it public.

"Boxes must be so placed that rural delivery drivers need not leave the vehicle in delivering the mail," Postmaster General Hays said. "This doesn't mean that drivers must be enabled to remain on the paved portion of a highway," he stated.

Mexicans in Arkansas Valley Growing Hemp

LAS ANIMAS, Col.—Vigorous measures to stamp out production of "Indian hemp" are being taken by Bent county officials, following the discovery here of several gardens in which the plant was being cultivated.

The plant is known botanically as Cannabis Satira, and when matured its large brown leaves are smoked with a result similar, it is said, to that of opium.

Many Mexicans in the Arkansas valley are reported to have been made insane from smoking "Indian hemp," and an extensive traffic in the "loco weed" has been going on in some sections of Colorado.

State laws provide heavy penalties for persons convicted of propagating "Indian hemp."

Hawaiian Land Valued for Its Water Rights

HONOLULU—Transfer of title to the only tract of land known to have been granted by the chieftains of old Hawaii to the early missionaries has just been completed, the title going from the heirs of the Coan, Lyman and Wetmore families to whom the grant was made, to the Hawaiian Evangelical association of Honolulu.

The land, for the most part an old lava flow extending for several miles into the fern forests above Hilo, was given to its original owners by one of the chiefs of Hawaii as a reward for their altruistic services to the Hawaiian people. As there was no such thing as individual land ownership in Hawaii at that time, all lands being considered the personal property of the chiefs to do with as they chose, an outright gift of this sort was considered very remarkable. The land is valuable only for its water rights, which are now leased to the owners of the sugar plantations.

EXPRESS RELIGION IN CONDUCT AND SERVICE, PLEA

Rev. G. Bromley Oxnam Urges Negative Neutrality No Longer Be Tolerated

"If the church is to live, its voice must be heard demanding that men express religion in conduct and service," declared Rev. G. Bromley Oxnam, noted economist at the First Methodist church last night in the sixth of a series of lectures on social aspects of Christianity.

"There is a compelling demand, too, that the church voice its message in the language of today; and that it conserve and use the transforming force which is inherent in Christianity.

"The church will endure, the outlook for religion is bright even in the face of crises—provided the church will win its place in the community through the service it renders, the justice it demands rather than by a position of artificial authority commanding men to follow where their reason does not lead.

"An Old Testament writer in a fit of pessimism wrote, 'The crooked cannot be made straight.' Isaiah with greater hope declared, 'The crooked shall be made straight.' Throughout the centuries there has been a conflict between those who feel that the world can be remade and those who are convinced it cannot.

"We face crises today in every land. It expresses itself in the field of international, industrial and religious relationships. Organized Christianity finds itself at the cross-roads. There are many leading world thinkers who today feel that organized Christianity expressed in the church is doomed.

"The church has had a tendency to speak with authority in fields other than religion in which science has completely disproved the theories formerly held. The use of worn-out phraseology in this day of change is of little worth. If the church speaks in other than religious fields, it must speak upon sound knowledge of facts and scientific information.

"The church has stressed a narrow individualism which has been too often blind to social sinning. The individualism has been selfish. The urge has been 'Be good and you will get to Heaven.' We have sung, 'Oh, that will be glory for me.' with emphasis upon 'glory' and 'me.'

"There has been a caste distinction in the church. As one writer expressed it, Mrs. Dives has been perfectly willing to call upon Mrs. Lazarus, but she does not anticipate that Mrs. Lazarus will return the call.

"The church has followed too often the attitude of negative neutrality in the great problems of the hour in industrial and international relationships. The church has failed to recognize that the Kingdom of God cannot be built upon foundations of economic injustice."

R. L. Hinckley Sells His Plumbing Business

R. L. Hinckley, formerly owner of the Glendale Hardware company and who after selling that business five years ago to James Webb engaged in business as the R. L. Hinckley Plumbing company at 1109 North Highland avenue, near Santa Monica boulevard, Hollywood, being one of the pioneer business houses in that district, has sold to two new firms who will divide its large business between them.

The plumbing business has been bought out by H. S. Tschipok, who will conduct it as a wholesale house exclusively. The plumbing contracting end has been taken over by C. G. Wilkinson & Company, who will move across the street in a new building being erected. The members of this company are C. G. Wilkinson, formerly of Glendale and who has been engaged in the capacity of plumbing foreman, estimator and manager of the estimating department during his several years of employ by Mr. Hinckley. Hume W. McFarlane and Dudley Wells. Mr. MaFarlane was engaged in the capacity of price clerk with Mr. Hinckley while in Glendale and Hollywood. The R. L. Hinckley company will continue in the ownership of the property at 1109 North Highland avenue.

Glendale's Regulars Win Basketball Game

One of the hardest fought basketball games played here this season was held last night in the gymnasium of the local high school, in which the Glendale regulars showed their true form by holding the strong, fast, furious, and nearly excellent team of the National Guards to a 16-16 tie.

The first half was easily the Guards', but in the latter episode, the black-and-red warriors tightened up and tied the score which remained until the final whistle.

The entire personnel of both teams played a good, consistent game all the way through, but special mention must be given Willard Goertz of the high school team, and Bernarr (Chisel) Dennison of the Guards. Their passes were perfect and their shots above par, both scoring the greatest number of points for their respective teams, Goertz making a total of 10 points and Dennison was given credit for 8. The lineup:

Glendale		Guards
Colburn (2)	F.	Wilde (4)
Goertz (10	F.	Doll (2)
Warthman	C.	C. Dennison (8)
Cline (2)	G.	R. Dennison (2)
N. McIver	G.	T. McIver

Substitutes: Glendale: McManus (2) for Colburn; Beggs for Warthman.

Vaudeville Program at T. D. & L. Carries Real Headline Acts

The vaudeville road show which Meiklejohn & Dunn are bringing to the T. D. L. theatre for this week end is composed almost entirely of headliners. This is even a better program than that which was shown last week, it is said.

The De Michelle brothers, Italian comedians and musicians, are back in California after their seventh tour of the Pantages circuit. Without a doubt this is one of the most mirth provoking acts on any stage.

Fox and Ingram, also two boys from the coast, were quite a hit with their bright songs and pianologues in New York at the Century roof. There is nothing sensational or wonderful about the little playlet which Herbert Bethew and his company are presenting, but for real charm and cleverness of plot, "Day Dreams" will be found entertaining.

Henry Sherr has played many weeks as principal comedian at the Broadway Pantages theatre in Los Angeles. He has a comical offering which he calls "For Heving's Sake."

On the screen, William De Mille's latest masterpiece, "The Lost Romance" will be seen.

SULPHUR CLEARS A PIMPLY SKIN

Apply Sulphur as Told When Your Skin Breaks Out

Any breaking out of the skin on face, neck, arms or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur. The pimples seem to dry right up and go away, declares a noted skin specialist.

Nothing has ever been found to take the place of sulphur as a pimple remover. It is harmless and inexpensive. Just ask any druggist for a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

'THE SHEIK' TO SHOW FOR FINAL TIMES T. D. & L. SCREEN

Picturization of Noted Novel Is Highly Praised; Keaton's Latest on Program

What promises to prove one of the reigning sensations of the current screen season, "The Sheik," a remarkable Paramount picture produced by George Melford, will be shown for the last times today at the T. D. L. theatre. The photoplay is a picturization of E. M. Hull's remarkable novel of the Saharan desert which is now numbered as one of the best sellers in the literary market.

The role of the Arabian tribal chieftain, Sheik Ahmed Ben Hassan, is portrayed by Rudolph Valentino, the handsome young actor who sprung into instant popularity by his work in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." Agnes Ayres, the newly created Paramount star, plays the featured lead—the haughty English girl who is captured by the Sheik and forced to do his bidding. The story tells of the strange love between these two characters and the many vicissitudes which are undergone before a perfect understanding is finally established between them.

Buster Keaton's Comedy

PRISCILLA DEAN IN 'CONFLICT' GIVES REAL THRILLS

Plenty of Suspense, Lots of Action in This Picture at Glendale Theatre

Presenting a personally guaranteed attraction the Glendale Theatre has one of the most thrilling pictures ever thrown on any screen in "Conflict." the latest Priscilla Dean Universal-Jewel starring vehicle.

The picture is the last word in screen melodrama and it grips one with its suspense almost from the first flash.

Its climax is built around the dynamiting of a big log-jam in the swollen waters of the great north woods, and the succeeding flood of logs and water down the valley, sweeping everything in its path. The big punch comes when the heroine, played by Miss Dean, rides madly down the bank abreast of the flood, leaps perilously from log to log through the flow, and rescues her unconscious sweetheart. played by Herbert Rawlinson, just as he is about to be swept over a cataract.

Plenty of Surprise

The suspense is real, the thrill is actual, and Miss Dean deserves credit for one of the most fearless stunts ever performed for the screen. The rescue scene has been favorably compared to the rescue scene in "Way Down East." It is just as good, if not better. For one thing. it is not so long drawn out.

The logging camp scenes of "Conflict" are a revelation in screen verisimilitude. Miss Dean and her company passed several weeks in the timber country of British Columbia filming the story in its proper settings.

If you clasp your hands together, interlacing the fingers, and the right thumb unconsciously comes on top, you will rule the home; if the left, you will be ruled.

If the end of the little finger reaches higher than the last joint of the ring finger, he or she will rule the house with ease and the other will be easily obedient.
